

NATIONAL TREASURES

Union Civil War Flags 1861 to 1865 United States Flags with 33,34,35 & 36 Stars

Thirty-three Stars 1859-1861

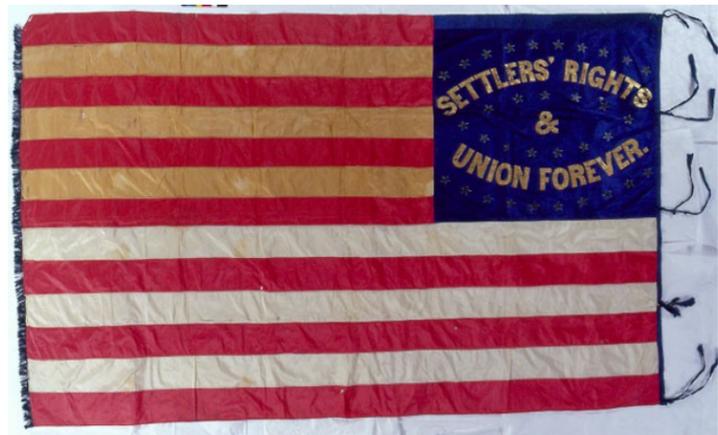

Banner attachment to ZFC2510, recounting the capture and recapture of this flag. Displayed upon the occasion of the reelection of President Abraham Lincoln, November 1964, Pittsburgh, PA.

ZFC2510—33 Star U.S. Storm Ensign with a 7-6-7-6-7 rectilinear star pattern, the 1st U.S. Flag captured in Civil War at Pensacola, & USN officer recapture, January 1861.

ZFC0001—US "Eagle Canton" 33 Star scatter pattern California Militia National Color of the Evergreen Home Guard No. 2, 1861.

ZFC0001—Reverse of Canton for ZFC0001 which clearly demonstrates the aspirations of the "Settler Army: in California—Loyalty and Property Rights.

ZFC0629—33 Star U.S. double ring star pattern flag with only 10 stripes—the Dodge Family Flag made for or on the Oregon Trail, 1859 to 1861.

ZFC2511— 33 Star U.S. “Grand Luminary” Flag, 1859 - 1861, from Soldiers & Sailors Museum & Memorial Collection , Pittsburgh, PA.

ZFC1403— 33 Star United States diamond in a box pattern Flag, 1858—1861; likely maritime ensign.

ZFC0610—U.S. 33 star flag with 7-7-7-6-6 rectilinear star pattern resting on a red stripe, 1858 to 1861.

ZFC1155—33 Star U.S. “Grand Luminary” Flag, made with additional accent stars all original to initial construction, not a conversion, 1859 to 1861.

ZFC2210— 33 Star U.S. double ring star pattern flag with only 10 stripes, a home made cotton flag, 1858 to 1861.

ZFC0586—33 Star U.S. double ring star pattern printed parade flag, 1858 to 1861.

Thirty-four Stars 1861-1863

ZFC0612—U.S. 34star flag with 7-7-6-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, 1861 to 1863. marked, Charles H. Collins.

ZFC0687—U.S. 34 star flag with 6-6-5-5-6-6 rectilinear star pattern, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC2488—U.S. 34star flag with 7-7-6-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, made by Foster of New York City, 1861 to 1863

ZFC0665—U.S. 34 star flag with 2-5-5-5-5-2 vertical rectilinear star pattern, 1861 to 1863., possibly a naval ensign.

ZFC3258— U.S. 34 star flag with 5-6-6-6-5 rectilinear star pattern, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC0015— 34 U.S. parade flag scatter pattern star-field with large center star , from the Peale Museum, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC0211—U.S. 34 Star National Color St. Louis Home Guard, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC0631—34 Star US Flag, 1861 - 1863, called the "Snowflakes Flag"

ZFC2555—34 Star U.S. flag with vertical 7-7-6-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, made in China for Arthur Bullus Bradford, 1st U.S. Consul to Amoy, China.

ZFC0680—34 Star US Flag, with 4-6-6-6-6-6 rectilinear star pattern, 1861 - 1863, foreign made, from former Secretary of Navy J. William Middendorf collection.

ZFC0005—34 Star US Flag, "Grand Luminary", parade flag, 1861 to 1863.

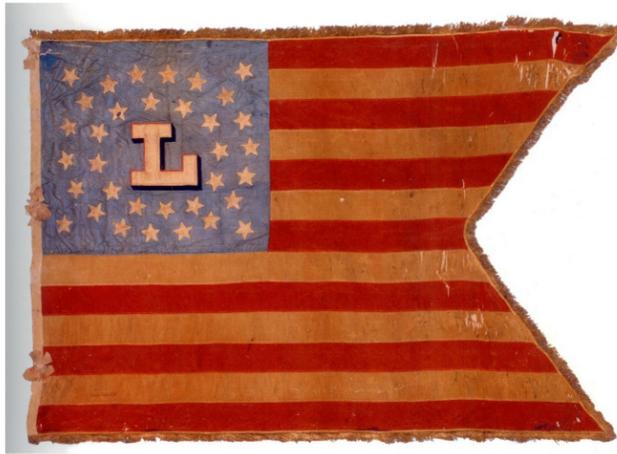

ZFC0176—34-Star (modified from a 33) U.S. printed parade flag with double ring star pattern with center star and corner accent stars, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC0529—U.S. 34 star printed parade flag with 5-6-6-6-5 rectilinear star pattern, 1861 to 1863.

ZFC0409—U.S. Army 34 Star Mounted Troops Guidon, with double ring star field with four corner stars, 1862 - 1863.

ZFC0611—U.S. 34 Star double ring and accent star presentation guidon of the 1st Massachusetts Cavalry, L Company, 1862 to 1865.

ZFC1088—U.S. 34 Star recruiting flag with a 7-7-6-7 rectilinear star pattern, New Jersey state contract (made by William J. Yard flag maker, used by the 7th New Jersey Infantry, 1861 to 1865.

ZFC1241—U.S. 34 Star "Grand Luminary" flag, 1861 to 1863; half-staffed at the Alsbany depot of the New York Central Railroad for President Abraham Lincoln's Funeral, April 1865.

ZFC0692—U.S. 34 Star flag with a 7-7-6-7 rectilinear star pattern and hoist panel with "OUR POLICY THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE", a Popular Sovereignty slogan, 861 to 1863.

ZFC0174—U.S. 32 Star flag with a 8-8-8-8 rectilinear star pattern from 1858, converted to a 34 Star Flag during the American Civil War, 1861 to 1863, printed stars with two sewn stars, a commercial conversion.

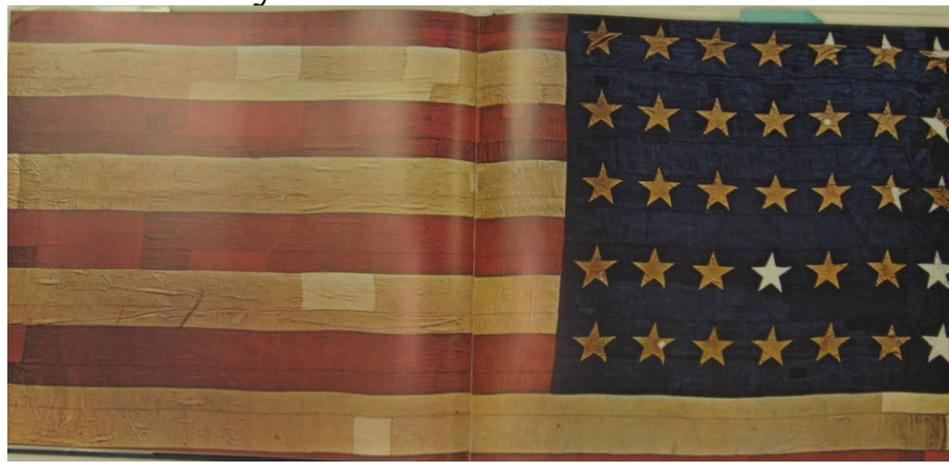

ZFC3105—U.S. 32 Star flag with a 8-8-8-8 rectilinear star pattern from 1858, converted to a 34 star flag during the American Civil War, 1861 to 1863, printed stars with two sewn stars, a commercial conversion, marked Melville.

ZFC2384—34 Star U.S. flag with 7-6-7-6-7 rectilinear star pattern, with added star, converted from a 33 star flag. . 1861 to 1863.

Thirty-five Stars 1863-1865

ZFC0616—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , from Erie Rail Road Depot, Jersey City, N.J. 1863 to 1865; half-staffed for the funeral of President Abraham Lincoln. Larger than the Star Spangled Banner, at 366”x 516”it is the largest surviving Civil War era Flag. (image from Mastai, Boleslaw and Marie-Louise D'Otrange, The Stars and The Stripes: The American Flag as Art and as History from the Birth of the Republic to the Present, Knopf, New York, 1973, pp. 146-147.)

ZFC0142 - U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , 1863 to 1865; signed by General George H. Thomas the “The Rock of Chickamauga “.

ZFC0648—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0215—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , from the General Hardware Store in Marysville, California, 1863 to 1865; used until the 1880s.

ZFC0661—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , 1863 to 1865.

ZFC1396—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , 1863 to 1865. Marked Ingersoll.

ZFC3104—U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern , 1863 to 1865..

ZFC0016—U.S. 35 star printed parade flag with scatter pattern around a large center star, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0021—U.S. 34 Star Flag with an irregular rectilinear star pattern from the route of the 1861 Pratt St. Riots, converted 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0588—U.S. 35-Star printed parade flag with double ring star pattern with center star and corner accent stars. Flown in Boston to celebrate the end of the Civil War and to mourn President Abraham Lincoln.

ZFC3364— U.S. 35 star ensign with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern marked American Ensign”, likely a navy yard made flag., 1863 to 1865.

ZFC3221—35 Star U.S. Jack & Presidential Signal, 1863 - 1865 ; marked American Jack”, likely a navy yard made flag., 1863 to 1865.

ZFC3086—35-Star United States Flag with double ring star pattern with center star and corner accent stars. Attributed to Jabez W. Loane, flag maker of Baltimore., Maryland, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0023—35-Star United States Flag with double ring star pattern with center star and corner accent stars. Attributed to Jabez W. Loane flag maker of Baltimore., Maryland, 1863 to 1865. From the collection of the Star Spangled Banner Flag House and Museum, Baltimore, ZFC0402—U.S. 35 Star Infantry or Heavy Artillery National Color, double ring "Philadelphia Oval", 1863 - 1865.

ZFC2574—U.S. 35 Star Infantry or Heavy Artillery National Color, double ring "Philadelphia Oval", 1863 - 1865.

ZFC0460—U.S. 35 Star National Color, with a 7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern from the New York Depot, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0403—U.S. 35 Star Recruiting Flag with 7-7-7-7—rectilinear star pattern of the 32nd Indiana Volunteer Infantry with Battle Honors., made under contract by James E. Sebring as part of a US Government contract, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC3560—U.S. 35 Star Camp Flag with 8-6-7-6-8 rectilinear star pattern of the 2nd Tennessee Volunteer Cavalry (Union) with unit designation., 1863 to 1865.

ZFC0699— 35 Star U.S. "Grand Luminary—Hidden Star". Militia camp flag with sky-blue infantry fringe, 1863 to 1865.

ZFC2577— U.S. 35 star flag with 7-7-7-7-7 rectilinear star pattern ; General Phillip H. Sheridan Personal U.S. National Headquarters Colors, 1864 to 1865.

Thirty-six Stars 1865-1867

ZFC0647—36-Star U.S. double ring star pattern flag, from the collection of John Spargo, 19th century educator and flag historian. 1865 to 1867. John Spargo discovered the Bennington Flag.

ZFC0618—36 Star U.S. Flag, with a 6 x 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; re-used at opening of Brooklyn Bridge on 24 May 1883.

ZFC0589—36 Star U.S. Flag, with a 6 x 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; from the courtroom of Superior Court Judge John T. Ball, of Santa Clara County, California

ZFC1418—36 Star U.S. Flag, with a 7-7-8-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867.

ZFC3087—36 Star U.S. Flag, with a 7-7-8-7-7 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867.; made under contract by James E. Sebring as part of a US Government contract.

ZFC0667—36 Star U.S. Flag, with a 9-9-9-9 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867., marked A.W. Thompson.

ZFC0678—36 Star U.S. Flag with a 4-6-5-6-5-6-4 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867' likely a converted flag.

ZFC0617— 36 Star U.S. "Grand Luminary" Mourning Flag flown during the period of national mourning during the funeral of President Abraham Lincoln, 1865. Used again to mourn President John F. Kennedy, 1963.

ZFC0280—36-Star U.S. Infantry flank marker, with a double ring star pattern, 1865—1867; likely from the Grand Army Review 24 & 25 May 1865.

ZFC0693—36 Star U.S. parade flag, with a 6 X 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; all stars have one point upwards; former Mastai Collection flag.

ZFC0254—36 Star U.S. parade flag, with a 6 X 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; all stars have one point upwards.

ZFC0747—36 Star U.S. parade flag, with a 6 X 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; all stars have one point oriented towards the hoist.

ZFC2495— 36 Star U.S. parade flag, with a 6 X 6 rectilinear star pattern & 11 stripes, 1865 to 1867.; Civil War surplus overprinted printed in 1868 for the Grant and Colfax campaign.

ZFC3215—36 Star U.S. parade flag, with a 6 X 6 rectilinear star pattern, 1865 to 1867; Civil War surplus put to us as a campaign flag in 1884 for the Cleveland and Hendricks campaign.